The Child Safe Policy provides the framework for:

CHILD SAFE STANDARDS

The National Principles for Child Safe Organisations

The National Principles were developed by the Australian Human Rights Commission in response to recommendations of the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse. The National Principles are comprised of 10 Principles that were informed by, but go further than, the 10 Child Safe Standards recommended by the Royal Commission. They are:

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE’S RIGHTS TO SAFETY, INFORMATION AND PARTICIPATION

Unity College is a child safe and child-centred organisation. Our environment is friendly and welcoming to all children and young people.

We actively seek to understand what makes students feel safe in our College and regularly communicate with students about what they can do if they feel unsafe.

PARENTS/CARERS, FAMILIES AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT AT THE COLLEGE

The College recognises that parents and carers have the primary responsibility for the upbringing and development of their children.

We ensure they participate in decisions affecting their children. We ensure that families and relevant communities (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, culturally and linguistically diverse communities, other communities that make up our Staff and student cohort, and the local community in which our College operates) know about the College’s operations and policies, including the Child Safe Policy and Child Safe Codes of Conduct, record keeping practices, risk management, and complaints and investigation processes.

We actively seek to include families and relevant communities in decisions about organisational planning, delivery of services, management of facilities, and learning and
